

A NIGHT WITH THE STARS

featuring Maestro Leonard Slatkin

Open Rehearsal and Concert

Tuesday, February 2, 2010

Athens High School Auditorium

4333 John R Road, Troy

7 pm

Free Admission

All Instrumental Music Students and Families:

The Troy High Bands are honored to host Detroit Symphony Orchestra Maestro Leonard Slatkin as he conducts the THS Symphonic Band. In addition, Composer James Barnes will conduct the world premiere of Symphonic Essay, op. 133, commissioned by the Troy High Bands.

All students who turn in the attached ticket upon arrival will receive a door prize and will be entered in a FREE raffle with the winner conducting the Symphonic Band at the conclusion of the program.

Additional prizes will be awarded - must be present to win.

All Elementary and Middle School students will receive practice card credit for attending this event.

Leonard Slatkin arranged through the "One for the Community" partnership between Entertainment Publications and the DSO